RE: Letter of Reference

To Whom It May Concern:

The EDC of Elkhart County contracted services with Classic Communications in 2006 and continues to work with this business today. Ron Barger, President, has and continues to demonstrate a strong working knowledge of communication tools and resources aiding economic development organizations.

Mr. Barger and his talented team of professionals show a sincere desire to continue to build and enhance their business skills and offerings. In addition, our not-for-profit corporation receives countless compliments due to the tireless efforts of Ron.

Personally I have found Ron adaptable and flexible to meet our corporation's objectives. Therefore, I support and can recommend Classic Communications as a company capable and competent to meet our new regional marketing efforts.

Sincerely,
