

GREAT LAKES ANGLER

April 2, 2008

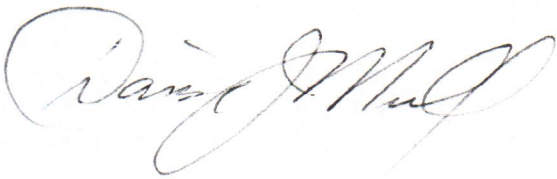

To Whom It May Concern:

This is a letter of reference concerning Ron Barger's professionalism, work ethic and writing ability. All of them are good!

Ron has been a contributor to Great Lakes Angler Magazine and Lakeland Boating Magazine for several years and now has columns in each, in which he and his Bilge Brother partner cover various aspects of marine power and boat maintenance. His columns consistently score among the most-read and most-liked among our readership. He has an uncanny ability to translate mind-numbing techno-speak into plain, understandable—and enjoyable—English.

Ron is always on time with projects and quick to rework anything that our editors deem to need tweaking. He's easy to work with and a good guy.

Sincerely,

Dave Mull
